FOREWORD

Praise and gratitude we offer to God Almighty, for by His grace we have successfully completed the LPPM-UPGRIS Annual Report for 2022. The LPPM-UPGRIS Annual Report for 2022 was prepared to provide information on LPPM's performance in conducting research and community service activities carried out by lecturers at Universitas PGRI Semarang in 2022.

In general, LPPM's performance achievements in 2022 have not met the set targets in the LPPM operational plan. The research sector's performance under the university's internal funding scheme (APBU) has only produced 77 research titles out of a target of 90 titles, and has only involved 285 lecturers (85% of the total number of active lecturers) with a budget of Rp 1,000,128,000. Similarly, the DRTPM grant scheme absorbed Rp 2,952,622,000 to fund 22 titles out of a target of 30 titles, involving 65 lecturers (24%). Similar to research, the performance of the community service sector under the university's internal funding scheme (APBU) has only produced 77 titles, as seen in the absorption of the allocated funds of Rp 554,630,000. for 77 titles involving 264 lecturers (74%). Meanwhile, in the DRTPM funding scheme absorbed funds amounting to Rp. 1,576,434,000 to fund 13 titles involving 41 lecturers (12%). This achievement requires further follow-up with even more vigorous efforts to reach the desired target.

However, research and community service outcomes generally exceed established targets. Research and community service outcomes continue to be developed and encouraged, not limited to publication of research results or articles in national or international journals, textbooks, and copyrights. They are also expected to produce appropriate, patented, and downstream innovations that can be commercialized.

The LPPM's achievements are inseparable from the hard work and strong cooperation of all parties. Therefore, we extend our gratitude to the Chair of YPLP PT PGRI, the Rector, Vice Rectors, Directors, Deans, structural officials, lecturers, and educational staff at PGRI Semarang University for their support and cooperation.

This annual report is important for self-reflection and evaluation purposes, allowing for future improvements to LPPM UPGRIS. This report is far from perfect and still has many shortcomings. Therefore, criticism and suggestions for improving this Annual Report are highly appreciated. We hope this report will be of value to all parties. interested parties.

Semarang, December 2022
Head of LPPM UPGRIS

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The LPPM Universitas PGRI Semarang's ranking until 2022 in the field of research is included in the main cluster (Decree of the Director General of Research and Development Strengthening No. B/5678/E1.2/HM00.03/2022) and in the field of community service is included in the very good cluster (Decree of the Director General of Research and Development Strengthening No. 29/E/KPT/2022). This ranking brings logical consequences to the responsibility and motivation to work harder to continue to improve the performance of research management and community service within the Universitas PGRI Semarang environment.

The 2022 Annual Report of the Institute for Research and Community Service of Universitas PGRI Semarang is prepared to present information on the performance achievements of the LPPM during 2022, which includes: research performance; community service performance; research and community service output performance; activities of each center in the LPPM; Capacity Building; and performance of cooperation with various parties.

Research performance under the university's internal funding scheme (APBU) has not fully met its target. The number of research titles has only reached 85.56% of the established performance indicator of 90 titles. Similarly, lecturer involvement in research has only reached 90.48% of the targeted 315 lecturers. Under the Ministry of Education, Culture, Research, and Technology's DRTPM grant scheme, only 26 research titles (86.67%) have been funded out of the targeted 30 titles, both under the national competitive, decentralized, and scientific research schemes. Detailed research performance can be seen in the following table.

Table 1 Number of Research Titles and Lecturers Involved in 2022

No	Scheme	Number of Titles		Number of Lecturers
		Target	Achievements	Target	Achievements
1	UPGRIS Internal Fund	90	285 (90%)	315	285 (90%)
2	DRTPM Funds (Competitive National, Decentralization, and Scientific Research)	30	26 (86.67%)	315	285 (90%)

Meanwhile, the amount of funds absorbed through the university's internal funding scheme (APBU) was Rp. 1,000,128,000, and the DRTPM grant absorbed Rp. 2,952,622,000.

Judging from the development of research performance from 2019 to 2022, research performance tends to experience a decline in the number of titles, especially starting in 2020, both in the university's internal funding source scheme and funding sources from grants from the Ministry of Education, Culture, Research and Technology. Judging from the amount of funds absorbed in the internal funding source scheme, it tends to be in line with the target. In contrast to the DRTPM grant scheme, the amount of funds tended to decrease in 2020 and 2022. This was due to the refocusing of government funds for Covid-19 handling activities. Table 2 below details the number of titles and the amount of funds absorbed from the year 2019-2022.

Table 2 Number of Research Titles and Amount of Funds Absorbed in 2019-2022

Almost the same as research performance, the performance of the community service sector in the university's internal funding scheme (APBU) produced 77 titles (90%) of the target of 86 titles. which absorbed funds amounting to Rp. 554,630,000. Meanwhile, the achievement of lecturer involvement was 88% of the target of 301 lecturers. In the DRTPM grant fund service scheme, funds amounting to Rp. 2,914,047,000.00 have been absorbed to fund 13 (81%) titles involving 48 lecturers (85%) of the target of 48 lecturers. Table 3 details the number of community service titles and the lecturers involved.

Table 3 Number of Community Service Titles and Lecturers Involved in 2022

No	Scheme	Number of Titles		Number of Lecturers
		Target	Achievement	Target	Achievement
1	UPGRIS Internal Fund	86	77 (90%)	264	231 (88%)
2	DRTPM Funds (PKM, PPUPIK and (Kedaireka)	16	13 (81%)	41	34 (83%)

Table 4 below is a breakdown of the development of the number of community service titles and the amount of funds absorbed based on the service scheme from 2019-2022. Under the internal funding scheme, the number of titles and funding absorption tended to increase compared to 2019. Meanwhile, under the Ministry of Education, Culture, Research, and Technology grant funding scheme, both titles and funding absorption decreased. This is due to a reduction in national funding and schemes offered by the central government, in this case the Ministry of Education, Culture, Research, and Technology, due to the refocusing of COVID-19 funding.

Nevertheless, the performance of research and community service outputs is quite encouraging. In general, research and community service outputs exceeded targets. However, there are several outputs that require continued improvement. The performance of research and community service outputs is evident in the number of journal publications, textbooks/texts, scientific forum presenters, intellectual property rights (IPR), and other outputs, as shown in Table 5 below.

The development of scientific journals managed by the Institute for Research and Community Service (LPPM) and each study program continues to improve, both in terms of management and ranking status. However, many journals still need to be continuously encouraged to improve their rankings. Table 6 below shows the journal ranking status and number of scientific journals managed by the LPPM and study programs at Universitas PGRI Semarang.

Each center head at LPPM has implemented previously planned programs. Activities are more focused on preparing and improving the quality of human resources within UPGRIS related to their respective fields and developing knowledge/studies in the field through exhibitions, seminars, training, short courses, mentoring, and collaboration with relevant agencies and organizations at the regional, national, and international levels.

Capacity Building is aimed at educational staff, heads of centers within the LPPM environment, and lecturers at Semarang PGRI University. Capacity building is intended to improve the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and behavior of existing human resources. Capacity building is carried out in various ways according to the interests and needs of the Institution, including through participation in outreach activities organized by the provincial government and the central government (Ministry of Education, Culture, Research, and Technology), seminars, workshops, and mentoring, by inviting resource persons from within and outside UPGRIS.

Collaboration has been established with several government institutions and communities, both through research and community service activities, as well as joint activities in the form of talk shows, seminars, or training.

1. BKKBN Central Java Province
2. Population Control and Family Planning Service, Semarang City, Implementation
Online Marketing Training for UPPKS Semarang City, July 2022
3. Central Java Regional Disaster Management Agency, Disaster Resilient Village through KKN, December 2022.

4. DMI Semarang City, Mapping of Mosque Community Economy and Empowerment Service
Mosque Community, December 2022
5. State and Private Universities in the LLDIKTI Region VI Central Java.
6. Universities or educational institutions abroad.
7. PT Phapros, Tbk.

Several activity programs designed for 2022 have been implemented, but several activities have not yet run as they should due to several obstacles faced, including (1) frequent delays in collecting reports on research results and community service, making it difficult for LPPM staff to fill out research and community service performance reports (2) not many of the outputs of lecturers' research results have been published, especially in indexed international or accredited national journals, so that many lecturers are still unable to become chairpersons in the scheme certain DRTPM grant funds, which resulted in a reduction in DRTPM fund proposal submissions, (3) lecturers are still less motivated in filling in research and community service performance on the page Sinta.

Efforts have been made to encourage lecturers to carry out research and community service activities.

1. Increase the amount of regular research funds from Rp. 2,500,000 per lecturer per year to Rp. 3,000,000 per lecturer per year and community service grants from Rp. 1,500,000 per lecturer per year to Rp. 2,000,000 per lecturer per year. In addition, the Institute has offered competitive grants, assignment grants, and foreign cooperation grants for both research and community service schemes in the amount of Rp. 15,000,000 to Rp. 25,000,000.
2. Improving the quality and quantity of research and community service (Ministry of Education, Culture, Research and Technology (DRTPM, scientific research, matching fund), APBU, partners: Central Java Province and districts/cities, LPDP, DUDI through CSR, SDGs, PROPER, SROI programs.
3. Improving the quality and quantity of research and community service outputs, articles in national and international proceedings/journals, IPR, innovation products, appropriate technology, and business units resulting from research or commercialization of research products.
4. Increasing the role and number of students involved in research and lecturer community service is included in the Research and Community Service guidebook which is integrated with MBKM activities at UPGRIS.
5. Strengthening quality control of research and community service through online and offline means giving reviewers a role in maintaining good quality in relation to the time period research, process, and content of research and community service.
6. Verification of the eligibility of lecturers as head researchers and community service providers;

7. Maximizing services for uploading proposals, research reporting, and community service by LPPM staff;
8. Workshops and mentoring for research and service groups through centers

Several activities are carried out to improve research and development performance.

Community service at PGRI Semarang University is as follows.

1. Revision of the Research, Community Service, and Community Service Guidelines V2.
2. Matching fund assistance from proposal upload to final report.
3. Mapping of partner areas/regions/villages/groups.
4. Evaluate and check the 2019-2021 DRPM grant financial report files based on the ratio budget.
5. Workshops and Coaching Clinics: a. output-based research (Innovation Products, TTG, Commercial Products, Learning Products); b. innovation-based community service and TTG; c. writing reputable journal articles; d. preparation of research proposals and community service grants DRTPM/PUI-PT/ Research Collaboration Center (PKR)/Scientific Research; e. acceleration of journal accreditation in the Sinta-accredited UPGRIS environment and Journal indexing in DOAJ;
6. Organizing the 5th International Conference on Education and Social Science Research (ICESRE) and the National Seminar on Research Results and Community Service (SNHP) in 2022, as well as internal research and community service monitoring and evaluation activities.

As of 2022, through research and community service, several innovative products have been produced, both those that have been successfully commercialized and those in the commercialization process.

PIG INTRODUCTION

In accordance with the Statutes of PGRI Semarang University, the Research and Community Service Institute To the Community (LPPM) of PGRI Semarang University is the implementing element of the two dharmas of the three pillars of higher education, namely research and community service. In accordance with the PGRI Semarang University research strategic plan 2022-2024, LPPM PGRI University Semarang is directed at a superior focus, namely empowering marginal communities, so LPPM is expected to be able to carry out its roles and functions as:

1. planner, manager, implementer of monitoring and evaluation of the implementation of research activities and service to the community,
2. developers of science, technology and/or art to support development, especially marginalized communities,
3. facilitator of various research and community service activities carried out by researchers and community service workers at PGRI Semarang University, and
4. Supervisor and developer of centers within the LPPM of PGRI Semarang University.

In carrying out these roles and functions, LPPM Universitas PGRI Semarang is assisted by six centers, namely: 1) Community Empowerment and KKN Center (PPM and KKN), 2) Community Empowerment Center Education and Humanities (P2H), 3) Center for Downstreaming and Intellectual Property Rights (PHHKI), 4) Population Center, Women and Child Protection (PKP2A), 5) Business Incubator Center and Journal Development (PIB & PJ), and 6) Science and Technology Center

The main targets of LPPM activities are based on the vision and mission of LPPM PGRI University Semarang is a) developing an academic culture that is character-based (based on values Pancasila, struggle, solidarity, devotion and service) in research, b) produce superior, reliable, and nationally characterized research and service personnel, c) developing superior research and increasing the role of PGRI University Semarang in terms of research, community service, and international publications international, d) developing and realizing superior products resulting from research for the benefit of society, e) achieving and increasing the acquisition of IPR for the results research and developing community empowerment in the context of protecting IPR, f) improve and realize internal and external cooperation in the field of research and community service, g) towards a Research University with character developing the relevance of character-based research and community service nation, ICT, and local excellence to improve the quality of education, global needs business and industry, and society in general.

In accordance with the role, function and targets of LPPM activities, the annual report LPPM Universitas PGRI Semarang is considered important in order to fulfill accountability management of an institution. Annual Report of the Research and Community Service Institute The 2022 Semarang PGRI University Community provides information on achievements LPPM performance during 2022, which includes: 1) research field performance, field performance community service, and research and service output performance; 2) center activities at LPPM; 3) Capacity Building, and 4) cooperation with other parties.

Realization of management of research and community service activities during 2022 has been carried out in accordance with research and community service management standards community includes quality assurance and HR activities, recruitment of internal assessors, selection activity proposals, internal monitoring and evaluation, follow-up on research results, increasing researcher capacity, and award activities. The research outputs that have been achieved include scientific publications, keynote speaker at a scientific meeting (seminar or conference), presenter in scientific meetings, IPR, downstreaming of research results and other outputs.

CHAPTER II

RESEARCH PERFORMANCE

The Research Performance of LPPM Universitas PGRI Semarang in 2022 can be seen from realization of ongoing research programs.

2.1 Research Scheme

The number of research projects conducted by lecturers at PGRI Semarang University in 2022 is calculated based on the number of titles and lecturers involved in the research. The performance of the research sector in the university's internal funding scheme (APBU) has met targets according to the allocated budget. Based on the research scheme internal funding (APBU) of PGRI Semarang University, the number of researches conducted lecturers based on a research scheme of 77 titles and involving 251 lecturers such as as seen in Table 2.1. Lecturer involvement (85% of all active lecturers at UPGRIS) has quite good. However, we will continue to improve so that in the future all lecturers can be involved in research activities to support the performance of the lecturer himself, the performance of the study program, faculties, institutions, and universities.

Table 2.1 Number of UPGRIS Internal Funded Research Titles Based on Research Scheme

Distribution of the number of research projects, the number of lecturers involved, and the funds absorbed in each faculty, UPGRIS internal funds in 2022 are shown in Table 2.2.

Distribution of the number of research and lecturers involved in research in each faculty is fairly evenly distributed proportionally in terms of the number of lecturers in each faculty.

2.3 Research Proposal to DRTPM in 2022

Research performance in 2022 can also be seen from the number of proposals submitted. lecturers for DRTPM grant funding in 2022. Of the 72 proposals submitted, those that passed The evaluation desk evaluated 70 proposals and only 9 proposals were approved for funding. This condition is certainly demanding hard work for proposal submission in 2023.
